Ideologies and Literature welcomes articles written in English, Spanish, Portuguese and, in some cases, French. Manuscripts submitted for the Essays section can be either of a theoretical or an applied nature, concerning themes and issues arising from a socio-historical study of Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian literatures and should normally not exceed 50 pages. Material for Clues and Sources, not to exceed 20 pages, should offer new perspectives on well established critical issues. Review Articles should address themselves to a discussion of general problematic issues within the objectives of the journal, as suggested by the book or ensemble of books under review, and should not exceed 20 pages. Manuscripts for the Theory section (see editorial) should not exceed 30 pages. Manuscripts submitted should adhere in format to the second edition of the MLA Style Sheet. Authors of unsolicited articles must place a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Opinions expressed by contributors to Ideologies and Literature are their own, and do not necessarily represent the views of the Board of Directors, the Advisory Board of the Institute for the Study of Ideologies and Literature, or those of the Editorial Board of the journal. Third class postage paid at Minneapolis, Minnesota.
